OVERVIEW

Founded this year under the leadership of Evan McMullin and Mindy Finn, Stand Up Ideas is a leadership and education organization that engages and galvanizes citizens and leaders across the political spectrum who share a commitment to the principles of individual rights, constitutional checks and balances, the rule of law, informed dialogue, and honest leadership. Stand Up Ideas creates spaces — physical, digital, and in the media — where Americans committed to preserving liberal democracy can learn from and inspire each other while working together to clarify and uphold what it means to be an American.
