Form 990 (2016)

Form 990, Part III, Line 4a:

Proteus Funds other grantmaking programs are strategic and responsive to the changing landscape of the issues we address on the ground, with an eye towards building cross-movement, deeply collaborative and intersectional efforts in the areas of democracy and criminal justice reform, peace and security, and racial, economic, gender, LGBTQ and reproductive justice

Form 990, Part III, Line 4b:

Piper Fund is a donor collaborative that brings together individual donors and foundations to diminish the influence of corporate and special interest money on our political and judicial systems. Piper fosters community-driven democratic reform to increase participation of historically disenfranchised communities, build community power, and protect fundamental rights for all individuals. Piper also fosters dialogue and knowledge-sharing among advocates between local, state and national organizations, and among funders, to align resources that will augment their impact.

Form 990, Part III, Line 4c:

Themis Fund and the 8th Amendment Project coordinate the national campaign to end the death penalty. The campaign employs all available tools to achieve repeal and decrease the number of death sentences and executions. At the same time, it works to change public discourse about the death penalty in this country. The campaign systematically pushes for both reduced usage and repeal in the states to achieve a successful U.S. Supreme Court review, and fosters the partnerships between national organizations, state groups, litigators, advocates, and funders that are essential to create lasting change.
