Fair Elections Center

WASHINGTON, D.C.

$100,000

Awarded: 2019

Fair Elections Center is a national, nonpartisan voting rights and election reform organization based in Washington, D.C. with a mission to use litigation and advocacy to remove barriers to registration and voting, particularly those disenfranchising underrepresented and marginalized communities, and to improve election administration. This grant supports the democratic engagement of low-income college students through the Campus Vote Project.
