| March 12, 2018 2:00pm - 3:00pm EDT | VIRTUAL DISCUSSION |

The battle over partisan gerrymandering rages on from state courts and legislatures, through ballot initiatives, and all the way up to the Supreme Court of the United States. As we are fighting for fair redistricting on many fronts, there are lessons learned at the state level that can be extrapolated nationally, and numerous efforts that need help from funders. Join us for a discussion with organizers on the ground who are helping to lead this fight at the state level.
